

DECEMBER 24, 2013 | DECOR IDEAS

Domaine's Favorite Kitchens of 2013

by PETER DOLKAS

We're sensing a pattern. Reviewing our choice kitchens of 2013 it's official: bright white and stainless steel reign supreme. We love the crisp sense of serenity white cabinets, carrera countertops, and fresh hardware add to these kitchens. Of course, it helps that they all tend to be flooded with natural light. Conversely though, we were also drawn to more unconventional spaces. Whether it was moody monochrome walls, lighting, and cabinets or the cozy sense of comfort worn woods and eclectic accents offered, we're celebrating the break from tradition these kitchens brought. One thing's for sure though, we'd be happy to hang out doing the dishes in any of these rooms. Well, maybe not the dishes.

GREATEST KITCHENS OF 2013

Kaelen Haworth: Hunter Gatherer

The fashion designer takes a kitchen-sink approach to decor with cinematic results.

Master of Disguise: Simone Harouche

Christina Aguilera's stylist gives us a personal tour of her walk-in contradiction.

Inside the Home of One King's Lane's Susan Feldman

The home decor merchant mastermind shares her Hollywood Hills home and secrets to creating the perfect living space.

Before and After: A Julia Child-Inspired Slipcovered Kitchen

A personal connection to the iconic chef inspires a timeless design from Laura Schwartz-Muller.

Mara & Alex: Magical Thinking

Celebrity hair stylists Mara Roszak and Alex Polillo conjured up their Silver Lake oasis, and later, the contents to go inside it.

Why it Works: Banquette Seating

Design Molly Luetkemeyer weighs in on everyone's favorite seating arrangement.

Bryan Batt: Gentlemen's Quarters

The Mad Men alum and co-owner of New Orleans boutique Hazelnut designs a glamorous hideaway in New Orleans with his partner Tom Cianfichi.

Greek Revival in Sag Harbor: A Love Story

Fashion designer Beth Blake and her husband Corbin Day celebrate their romance with the Hamptons with a house filled with surprising seaside décor and whimsical accents.

Elizabeth Cutler: Home and Away

The SoulCycle co-founder and her family get back to nature (and close to ice cream) at their countrified Hamptons refuge.

Poetry in Motion: Athena Calderone

The chameleon designer builds a temple to reinvention in Brooklyn.

19 / 22

20 / 22

